

The guest management tool for corporates

Registration without account

Save your guests the creation of a separate account. separate account. In this case, registration only takes place via the e-mail address.

File upload for registration

Upload files that will be available to your guests during registration. (For PDFs, lists, images, videos, etc.)

Individual & collective changes to the guest list

Adjust single or multiple entries of the guest list manually, if desired.

Guest list import for update

Update large amounts of data via the simple import of an Excel spreadsheet.

Dynamic guest list filtering

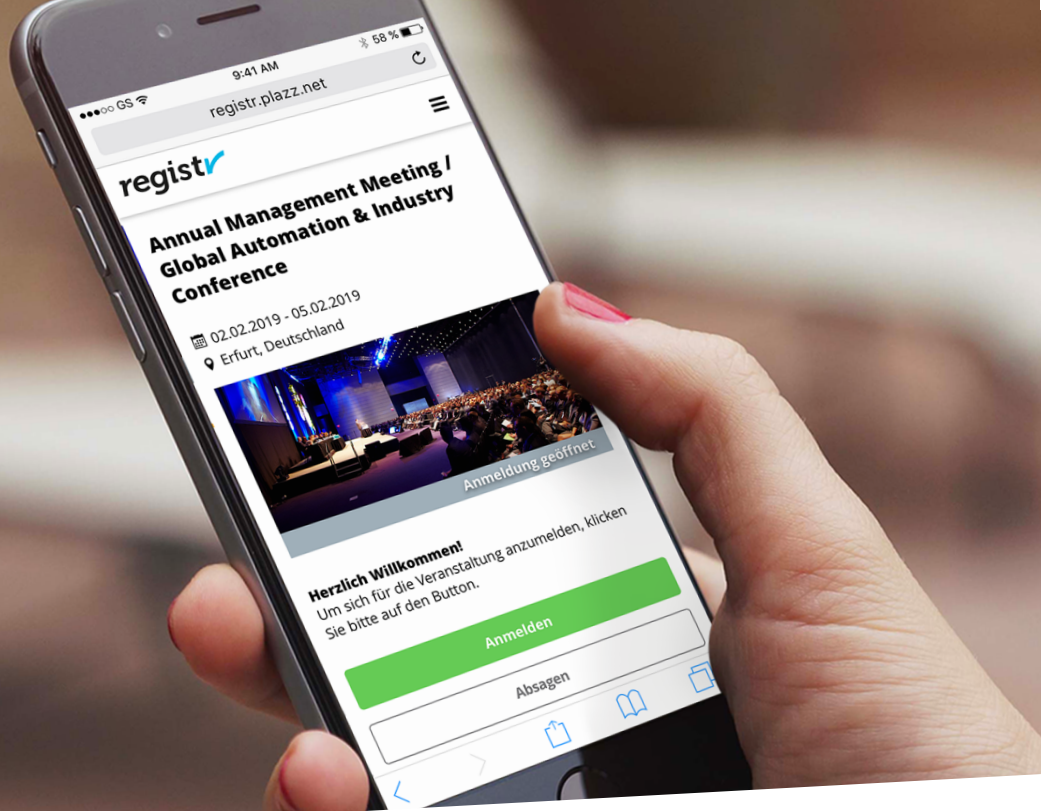

Filter the guest list according to various criteria, such as results of questionnaires and export the results.

Companion registration

Allow your guests to specify an accompaniment, which will be recorded and displayed separately in the guest list.

Exports according to your wishes

Export Excel lists in which you can select the data fields according to your individual requirements.

E-mail reporting

Get detailed information about when which guest received which email.

Check-in and check-out of your guests

Keep track of your guests' stay status by automatically transferring check-in and check-out information to the guest list.

QR code dispatch

The individual QR ticket code is sent to each person by e-mail. This simplifies the organization of the event.

Wallet Integration

Additional wallet integration of the QR codes sent for iOS and Android.

Further development

We are constantly working on further improving registr as a participant management tool in order to offer you an even more efficient and user-friendly solution.